“Do not ask your children to strive for extraordinary lives.
Such striving may seem admirable, but it is the way of foolishness.
Help them instead to find the wonder and the marvel of an ordinary life.
Show them the joy of tasting tomatoes, apples and pears.
Show them how to cry
when pets and people die.
Show them the infinite pleasure in the touch of a hand.
And make the ordinary come alive for them.
The extraordinary will take care of itself.”

POEM

*An autumnal happiness
The autumn breeze made a promise of innocence
Before the gale whisked away it's gold turned leaves
It spoke of distant lands under an auburn sky
And of an amber aura
It offered with outstretched hands
An opportunity to reminisce in the memories of the past
To bask in the glory of vermilion hues
To behold the beauty of the vintage sky
To relive the era of timeless moments
To wander those wondrous moonlight paths
To gaze upon the eternal stars
To relive that autumnal happiness*

*But just as all things good and jolly
It must end promising to return
The wheel had turned for the nonce only to come full circle again
And so began the journey of the golden autumn to promised lands both young and old Dark and bright; those forgotten and legendary Those near and far
To bestow it's copper effervescence on them just as it had on ours
The autumn breeze left wisdom in its wake
It whispered fondly the secret of life
To leave be what once was
And cherish what is*

"Heaven came down and glory filled my heart!"

Christmas is all about cup-cakes, jingle bells, snow and Santa! Everyone's Santa is on its way with a cart full of gifts. But oh! It can't reach us this time? From all these years of learning from Santa, why not 'be a Santa'?

On Friday, 17th of Dec, the tiny Santas of Symbiosis school, made a gratitude card and decided to show gratitude by being a Santa for the elders of their family as a part of their Christmas activity. After their regular classes, children readily discussed and accepted how much their family members have been working hard for them. To acknowledge this great deed, they took a step forward to be a santa for thier parents. They took a ride on their imaginary sleigh to draw wonders on their cards. It was overwhelming to see how our little artists could get the message and portray it so well with their art and attitude.

A very Happy new year from the symbi team. Merry Cristmas- may the merryness grow and prosper.

HAPPY NEW YEAR 2022
