Every child is a different
Kind of flower, and all together, they make this world a beautiful garden.

Symbiosis Kindergarten is very glad to present the first
Quarterly Newsletter

“Kaleidoscope”: Symbiosis Kindergarten

Peep in the beautiful, innocent, creative marvel of children’s world. This newsletter is a conversion from our Glimpses due to the inspiration of Dr. Gargee Mitra Madam, Head, SSCD.

Tips for Reading:

- Symbiosis Kindergarten strongly believes- “The more the stimulation the child gets from his or her environment the more he/she will be at a superior level of thinking as well as learning.”
- Spend quality time reading for your children.
- Read one or two pages at a time and slowly increase the number if possible (as you have 4 months to read and repeat till the next newsletter)
- Give lot of focus on picture reading.

- Try to read out and make the child understand each and every picture and write up printed in the newsletter. It will help to a great extent.
- If possible take out a print and compile it into a book form as it will be easy for the child and the mother to work together.

POEM- DAY BY DAY I FLOAT MY PAPER BOATS.....

- SHRI. RABINDRANATH TAGORE

॥ वसुधैव कुटुम्बकम् ॥

Day by day I float my paper boats
One by one down the running stream.
In big black letters I write my name on them
And the name of the villagers where I live.
I hope that someone in some strange land will find them and know who I am.

I load my little boats with shiuli flower from our garden
And hope that these blooms of the dawn will be carried safely
To land in the night.

I launch my paper boats and look up into the sky and see the little clouds
Setting thee white bulging sails.

I know not what playmate of mine in the sky sends them down
The air to race with my boast!

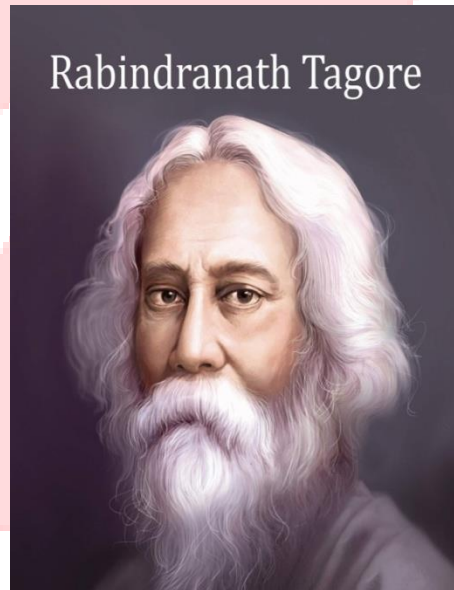

Where night comes I bury my face in my arms and dream that my Paper boats float on and on under the midnight stars.

The failures of sleep are sailing in them
And the lady ins their baskets full of dreams.

Shri. Rabindranath Tagoreji is a Bengali poet, short-story writer, song composer, playwright, essayist and painter.

Rabindranath Tagore composed the National Anthem of India and won the Nobel Prize for Literature. He was a multitalented personality in every sense. Rabindranath Tagore was born on 7th May 1861 in Calcutta, West Bengal.

Shantiniketan is Rabindranath Tagore's vision of a place of learning that is free from religious and regional barriers. Even today, in every step, in every brick and in every tree at Shantiniketan, one can still feel his presence, his passion, his dedication and his pride in the institution.

India is our country which has many states and union territories. The capital of our country, India is New Delhi. Each state has its own capital.

Tip for parents- Always show a real map/globe too along with this map to help the child locate the place.

Story for the parents to read out

The Tale of Peter Rabbit

Once upon a time, there were four little rabbits-Flopsy, Mopsy, Cotton tail and Peter. They lived with their mother in a sand-bank, underneath the roots of a very big fir tree. One morning Mrs. Rabbit said, “My dears, you may go into the fields or down the lane, but don’t go into Mr. McGregor’s garden. Your father had an accident there. Now run along and don’t get into mischief. I am going out.”

Then old Mrs. Rabbit took a basket and her umbrella and went through the wood to the baker's. She bought a loaf of brown bread and five currant buns.

Flopsy, Mopsy and Cotton tail who were good little bunnies, went down the lane to collect blackberries. But, Peter who was very naughty ran straight away to Mr. McGregor's garden and squeezed under the gate.

First he ate some lettuces and some French beans and then he ate some radishes and then went to look for parsley. But round the end of a cucumber frame, he met Mr. McGregor. Mr. McGregor was on his hands and knees planting out young cabbages but he jumped up and ran after Peter, calling out “stop thief!”

Peter was most dreadfully frightened; he rushed all over the garden, for he had forgotten the way back to the gate. He lost one of his shoes among the cabbages and the other shoe amongst the potatoes. After losing them, he ran on four legs and went faster and got caught in gooseberry net because of the large buttons on his jacket.

Mr. McGregor came up with a sieve which he intended to pop upon the top of Peter, but Peter wriggled out just in time, leaving his jacket behind and rushed into a tool-shed and jumped into a can. But it was filled with water. Mr. McGregor was quite sure that Peter was somewhere in the tool-shed. Just then Peter sneezed “Kertyschoo!” Mr. McGregor was after him in no time and tried to put his foot upon Peter who jumped out of a window, upsetting three plants. Mr. McGregor got tired running after Peter. He went back to his work.

Peter sat down to rest, he was out of breath and trembling with fright and he had not the least idea which way to go. Also he was very damp with sitting in that can. Suddenly he found an old mouse was running in and out over the stone door-step, carrying peas and beans to her family in the wood. Peter asked her, the way to the gate but she had such a large pea in her mouth that she could not answer. Peter began to cry. So he came out and climbed upon a wheel-barrow and peeped over. The first thing he saw was McGregor hoeing onions. His back was turned towards Peter and beyond him was the gate.

Peter got down very quietly off the wheelbarrow and started running as fast as he could go. Mr. McGregor caught sight of him at the corner, but Peter did not care. He slipped underneath the gate and was safe at last in the wood outside the garden. Mr. McGregor hung up the little jacket and the shoes for a scarecrow to frighten the black birds.

Peter never stopped running or looked behind him till he got home to the big fir tree. His mother put him to bed and made some chamomile tea and gave a dose of it to Peter. But Flopsy, Mopsy and Cotton tail had bread and milk and blackberries for supper.

The story and illustration is taken from Madam Beatrix Potter's book "Peter Rabbit". This particular illustration is done by our teacher for our children. This story is the handmade story at school.

Read this beautiful poem of the famous English poet Madam Sylvia Path. This is her first published poem when she was just 8 years old. She had written to the editor of the news paper that she had penned down this poem based on 'what she sees and hears'. She had titled these lines as "Poem" -

Hear the crickets chirping
On the dewy grass
Bright little fireflies
Twinkle as they pass

Tips for parents-

- * Read out the poem minimum twice.
- * Ask what time of the day has been captured by the poetess in the poem.
- * Ask them whether they would like to illustrate (draw) what she had described in the poem.
- * Ask the Child to find out as many rhyming words from the poem and form his/her vocabulary.
- * The Child can make an attempt to create a short poem.

Down the memory lane....

This feature of our newsletter is dedicated to all our team of our academically strong management, students, their parents and the staff.

Together we have weaved a vibrant fabric with each enriching learning - teaching moment.

Through this feature we will try to share some of our simple yet significant learning experiences with our wonderful students and make you have a peep at the golden memories from the closer perspective to enjoy the kaleidoscopic view of their innocent, beautiful and brilliant world. This kind of records can be maintained only if the Teachers are vigilant, alert and enthusiastic with deep passion and knowledge of early Childhood.

Experience 1 at Symbiosis Kindergarten

Academic Year- 2011- 2012

Class - Mini K.G. C

Teachers- Mrs. Sanchali Sodhe and Mrs. Ashwini Chaudhari

A worksheet for the learning of letter 'Vv' was given to the children. There were many mixed pictures and the children were supposed to colour only the pictures starting with ' Vv '. So this particular Child completed the worksheet by appropriately colouring all the pictures as per the instructions given.

Amongst these pictures was one picture of a vegetable basket.

The Child coloured only the vegetables and not the basket.

So the Teachers guided her that 'Vv'- Vegetable basket, so colour the complete picture, why have you left it half done. You have coloured only the vegetables so colour the remaining picture, colour the vegetable basket.

So the Child boldly replied Teacher 'Vv' - vegetables so I have coloured it, but 'Bb' - basket so I have not coloured it. Right at the tender age, the Child's awareness of phonetics is so deep and what an amazing perspective!!!

This Child's name is Shambhavi Sonwane from Play Group- C.

(Earlier all the Mini K.G. classes were referred to as

'Play Group'. But with the valuable guidelines from Dr. Vidya Madam, we switched over to calling it as 'Mini K.G.'

Happy Diwali

- Let us be together to celebrate the festival of lights in an auspicious way and with a festive mood.
 - Contribute in whatever small way you can to other children who need and light up a smile on their faces and that will be the true Diwali celebration.
 - Read lot of books. Regularity in your studies is a must.
 - Do not burst crackers as it creates pollution.
- “Regularity in studies is the Mantra. Study time can be short but regular.”
